

Joshua Kevin – LLM(Malaya), LLB (Hons) (Lond), CLP
Advocate & Solicitor

Course Advisor (Criminal Procedure, Professional Practice)

Mr. Kevin has been an integral part of the academic team for the Bachelor of Jurisprudence (External) (in 2004) and CLP programme in ATC. Kind and passionate, Mr. Kevin possesses excellent teaching skills that never fails to produce excellent results amongst his students. His depth of legal knowledge and over a decade experience as a legal practitioner is an invaluable asset which profoundly benefits aspiring lawyers. Presently Mr. Kevin is ATC's Course Advisor for the CLP programme and mainly lectures and tutors on Criminal Procedure and Professional Practice at both our KL and Penang campuses. To date he has authored and co-authored various publications on Malaysian Law that have proven beneficial to academicians, students and practitioners. To name a few his contributions in the Malaysian Law Journal (MLJ) are - "Land Law (CLP Series on Professional Practice)", "Prinsip-prinsip Penting Perundangan Tanah Di Malaysia", "Laws of Hire Purchase in Malaysia", "Forms & Precedent (Hire Purchase)" and "Forms & Precedent for Insurance Law". He is also currently writing his own book on Criminal Procedure. In 2009, Mr. Kevin established his own practice under the name and style of Kevin & Co. and the firm has since grown to have four branches in the nation.

Mariette Peters-Goh - LLM (Malaya), LLB (Hons) (Malaya)
Advocate & Solicitor

(Evidence)

Ms. Mariette is a well-known lecturer for Law of Evidence where her undying commitment and persistence in ensuring that students excel is a guaranteed factor. She obtained both her Bachelor of Laws and Master of Laws from Universiti Malaya and has been lecturing for the past 18 years on a full and part-time basis. In addition to lecturing and conducting seminars, Ms. Mariette has contributed towards numerous publications that makes evident her substance and credibility as an academician. Her book entitled "Law of Evidence in Malaysia" is the text primarily used by CLP students pursuing the programme. She has also contributed to the Halsbury's Laws of Malaysia and is a regular contributor to Civil Procedure in Singapore and Malaysia. She has also written articles in the Current Law Journal (CLJ) entitled: "The Standard of Proof in Prima Facie Cases" and "Customary Marriages". Her very recent publication, "To be or Not to be ... a Lawyer" is a must-have book for every law student who wishes to get an insider's perspective into the reality of practising law in Malaysia. Ms. Mariette was an editor with MLJ and is still contributing towards the 'case reporting' section in both MLJ and CLJ. She is a Partner at Messrs Zul Rafique & Co. and heads its Knowledge Management, Research and Training Department.

Ravindran Shanmuganathan - LLB (Hons) (Lond), CLP
Advocate & Solicitor

(Civil Procedure)

Mr. Ravi is a renowned figure in both the legal practice and academic field. Meticulous and highly knowledgeable, Mr. Ravi has been contributing tremendously to the success of ATC; he has over 18 years of experience in lecturing on Law of Evidence to our undergraduates in the University of London LLB programme. He mainly maintains his practice in the area of corporate and commercial litigation and shares his extensive knowledge in Civil Procedure with CLP students. He is a senior practitioner and Partner at Messrs SreenevasanYoung.

Munita Kaur - M.A. (Manchester), LLM(Malaya), LLB(Hons)(Lond),CLP
Senior Lecturer, ATC KL

(General Paper)

Ms. Munita is the Principal Lecturer of Law of Tort in the University of London LLB (International) Programme. A committed and dedicated academician she contributes extensively to the development of the subjects she teaches through her continuous research and writing of lecture notes. Ms. Munita has also contributed to the development of the CLP Department where she lectures and tutors on General Paper. She is a highly qualified lady and is looking to pursue her Phd soon. Before she decided to dedicate her life to academia she was called to the bar and was in legal practice for a while.

Faculty members

Amerjit Singh - LLB (Hons) (Lond), CLP

Advocate & Solicitor

(General Paper)

Mr. Amerjit has experience of more than 20 years in teaching on the University of London LLB programme. His areas of expertise includes Criminal Law, Law of Trust, Evidence and Jurisprudence. Always able to incorporate humour into his lectures, Mr. Amerjit is very popular amongst students and is often their favourite. He also shares his knowledge in Tort (General Paper) on the CLP programme and is currently a practising Advocate & Solicitor and Partner in his firm.

Suresh Kumar Raman – LLM, MBA, LLB (Hons) (Lond)

Advocate & Solicitor

(General Paper)

Mr. Suresh is a graduate from the University of London and obtained a book prize for best performance at the Final Part II Examinations in the LLB Programme. He was initially appointed as the Head of the Law Department at Johor Tutorial Centre and was later seconded to ITC School of Laws. Having completed the LLB, Mr. Suresh went on to complete his MBA (majoring in Human Resource Management) and has also obtained Master of Laws in Commercial Law. He is one of the authors for “Acumen’s Singapore Essential Employment Manual”. Mr Suresh teaches on the subjects of Elements of the Law of Contract on the Certificate in Higher Education (Common Law) programme and Elements of the Law of Contract, Law of Torts, Law of Trusts and Jurisprudence and Legal Theory on the Diploma in Common law and Bachelor of Laws programme. He currently also shares his knowledge in Contract (General Paper) on the CLP Programme and is a practising Advocate and Solicitor.

Irene Kam - LLB (Hons)(Lond), CLP

Advocate & Solicitor

(Civil Procedure)

Ms. Irene was a national mooter as a law student. She has had contributed tremendously to the national and international success of ATC as its former Moot Director. She lectures on the University of London LLB programme, in highly dynamic areas namely Intellectual Property Law and Conflict of Laws. Ms. Irene presently maintains her practice of law at Messrs Suaran & Sankey and relentlessly shares her experience in the CLP programme by teaching Civil Procedure.

Choong Kak Sen - LLB(Hons)(Lond),CLP

Advocate & Solicitor

(Evidence)

Mr. Kak Sen comes with a wealth of varied experience in legal practice. After having obtained a Second Class (Upper) in his CLP examination, including a distinction for Evidence, Mr.Kak Sen joined the Attorney General’s Chamber and was appointed a Deputy Public Prosecutor for 3 years. He has since appeared in many reported cases. An inspired individual, Mr. Kak Sen adds a unique dimension into the CLP faculty. He currently lectures and tutors on Law of Evidence in the CLP programme at both our KL and Penang campuses. He also maintains his practice at Messrs Gooi & Azura.

Daphne Koo– LLB(Hons)(Lond), CLP

Advocate & Solicitor

(General Paper)

Ms. Daphne graduated with a Second Class (Upper) degree from the University of London and went on to complete her CLP. She has since been in legal practice for almost a decade and is currently a Partner at Messrs Rahmat Lim & Partners. She has wide knowledge and experience in the areas of dispute resolution, maritime and litigation. She lectures on Law of Contract, one of the components of General Paper

Srimurugan Alagan – LLM(Lond), LLB(Hons)(Lond), CLP

Advocate & Solicitor

(Professional Practice, Criminal Procedure)

Mr. Sri has experience in vast areas of practice ranging from Bankruptcy Proceedings, Winding up on Companies to International Investment Law and Trade Law. He has recently obtained his Masters in Law from the University of London, specialising in International Dispute Resolution. Besides maintaining a thriving practice, Mr. Sri is also an active contributor to the world of legal literature through his published book “Jurisdiction of Courts in Malaysia” and well known article “Winding Up of Companies under s218(1)(e) & 218(2)(a) of the Companies Act 1965 – Practice and Procedure [2004] 2 CL xiii. A jovial and approachable lecturer, Mr. Sri mainly lectures and tutors on the Bankruptcy & Winding Up component of Professional Practice and Criminal Procedure. Mr. Sri is also a proud owner of his own firm, Srimurugan & Co.

Praveena Karunamoorthy – LLM (Lond), LL.B (Hons) (Lond), CLP

Advocate & Solicitor

(Professional Practice)

Ms. Praveena has been teaching at ATC for the past 7 years on the University of London's Undergraduate Laws programme in the subjects of Legal System & Method, Tort and Intellectual Property Law. She is currently the Principal Lecturer for the subject of Legal System & Method. Ms. Praveena graduated from the same programme in 2006 and thereafter, driven by her passion for Intellectual Property Law, pursued her LLM with the University of London with a specialisation in International Intellectual Property Law, completing the same in 2009. She then finished her CLP in 2010 and began teaching at ATC on a full time basis. In 2012, the practical world of legal practice called out to her and she commenced her pupillage under renowned Intellectual Property lawyer Mr. Suaran Singh in the firm of Messrs Suaran & Sankey. There she remained after being called to the Malaysian Bar as an Advocate & Solicitor in 2013, all the while teaching at ATC on a part-time basis. In 2014 Ms. Praveena and her sister opened up their own legal practice, Messrs Karunamoorthy & Associates, specialising in complex probate & administration matters and insurance disputes. Ms. Praveena is also one of the co-authors of the book entitled "The Financial Services Act 2013 & Insurance" together with her father and sister. One of the latest additions to ATC's CLP programme, Ms. Praveena brings her experience from legal practice to the subject of Professional Practice, specifically in the area of Probate & Administration

Rachel Yap Yen Siang – LL.B (Hons) (Lond), CLP

Advocate & Solicitor

(Professional Practice)

Ms. Rachel completed her legal education and was awarded the University Of London LL.B. (Hons.) degree in 2011 and was subsequently called to the Malaysian Bar in 2013. After having completed her pupillage in Messrs Shearn Delamore & Co, she commenced her legal practice at Messrs Lim Kian Leong & Co mainly dealing in the area of general litigation, with particular focus on cases involving professional negligence. Even before obtaining her qualifications as an Advocate & Solicitor, Ms. Rachel has had plenty of experience in the legal field. Notably, she had been working as a conveyancing clerk and legal secretary in local law firms for three years and lectured on several subjects of law in the LLB programme in ATC. With such vast experience before obtaining her qualifications, it came as no surprise when she came out top of her class when she graduated. She translated her passion in law into her work as well. She presently contributes to the CLP Faculty by lecturing on Ethics & Advocacy. Ms. Rachel is also an active participant in the KL Bar Sports Committee.

Loon Jia Yin – LLM(Malaya),LLB(Hons)(Lond),CLPNon–practising Advocate & Solicitor(Criminal Procedure)*

After being called to the bar, Ms. Loon decided to join the AG's Chambers and was appointed a Deputy Public Prosecutor. She was in the position for three years and gained in depth knowledge of Criminal Procedure. After leaving the AG's chambers, she decided to take up lecturing full time and has been instrumental in providing students a thorough understanding in the areas of Contract Law, Evidence and Company Law in the University of London LLB programme. At present, Ms. Loon mainly lectures and tutors on Criminal Procedure in the CLP Programme and proudly serves the UNHCR (Malaysia).

Kashmirjit Kaur HS – LLB(Hons)(Lond), CLPHead of Department (CLP), ATC KL(Civil Procedure)*

Ms. Kashmir has almost five years of experience in teaching on the University of London LLB (International) programme. Her areas of interest are mainly Legal System & Methods, Family Law and Company Law. To enhance her practical knowledge in law she undertook the CLP, completed her pupillage and was called to the Bar. Whilst in practice, she mainly dealt in civil and commercial issues. Ms. Kashmir currently tutors on Civil Procedure in the CLP Programme.

Sanjay Kumar Kanchanlal - LLB(Hons)(Lond),CLPHead of School of Postgraduate Studies, ATC Penang(Professional Practice)*

Mr. Sanjay was a legal practitioner with four years of experience in civil litigation. He joined ATC Penang in the year of 2007 and has since been teaching on the CLP, LLB and A level Programmes. Favourite amongst students, Mr. Sanjay mainly teaches Probate, Bankruptcy and Winding up of companies in the CLP programme.

Saravanesh Supramaniam - LLB(Hons)(Lond), CLP, M.CompSci (USM), BSc Comp Sc (USM)Advocate & Solicitor(General Paper, Civil Procedure)*

Mr. Saravanesh is currently a legal practitioner with over three years of experience in civil litigation. He joined ATC Penang in 2012 and teaches on the CLP and LLB Programmes on a part time basis. With a dynamic teaching style, Mr. Saravanesh effectively prepares students for both the components of General Paper.

Ragunathan Natarajan - LLB, Barrister of Law (Middle Temple)Lecturer, ATC Penang(Professional Practice)*

Mr. Ragu completed his LLB degree from University of London and has Bar qualifications. He had been in practice for fifteen years before deciding to join the academic world. He is part of ATC Penang faculty since 2011 and currently teaches on the CLP, LLB, DBA and A level Programmes. Mr. Ragu shares his immense passion towards law and his vast experience in practice by teaching the subject of Professional Practice, specifically on the components of Ethics and Advocacy.