

Certificate in Legal Practice

(R2/380/6/0010)(03/22)(A7550) (KL Campus)

After graduating with the Bachelor of Laws degree from the University of London (LL.B), you will be required to complete a professional law exam, known as the Certificate in Legal Practice (CLP), to become a qualified advocate and solicitor. The Certificate in Legal Practice (CLP) is a prerequisite qualifying examination for admission to the Malaysian Bar. If you have obtained the minimum requirements in your LL.B results, you may proceed to read for the CLP course. The exams are conducted by the Legal Profession Qualifying Board, and it is regulated by the Legal Profession Act 1976.

Reading law at ATC College gives you the added advantage of being prepared for the real world. You will learn practical applications for different subjects so that you can answer the exam questions well. You will develop a well-balanced perspective of academic law and practical applications. It is essential training to develop the necessary skills required as a lawyer. You will be taught by excellent tutors, who are a combination of academics and practitioners. The tutors at ATC College are highly experienced with outstanding credentials, and they include CLP textbook authors in the areas of Evidence, Professional Practice, and General Paper. You will definitely have the edge over your peers at ATC College.

The CLP exams are conducted twice a year. The main exam will be held in July, and the supplementary exam (for re-sits) will be held in October. You must pass all the papers in one sitting. The CLP consists of 5 compulsory papers, which are as follows:
