Certificate in Legal Practice

The CERTIFICATE IN LEGAL PRACTICE (CLP) is a professional level examination regulated by the Malaysian Legal Profession Qualifying Board¹.

With a CLP qualification, one becomes a 'qualified person' by virtue of Section 3 of the Legal Profession Act 1976², who can then choose to complete their pupillage with a view to be admitted as an Advocate and Solicitor in Malaysia.

The CLP EXAMINATION (CLPE) is commonly known for its high standards which ensures only qualified and fittest candidates enter and serve as members of the legal profession in Malaysia.

¹ commonly referred to as the CLP Board / LPQB

² hereinafter LPA 1976

The Entry Requirements

The LPQB is a statutory body empowered under LPA 1976 to decide on the requirements for one to qualify to sit for the CLPE.

Detailed & updated information on the Entry Requirements for CLP are available at <http://www.lpqb.org.my/>

The basic entry requirements for UK LAW DEGREE HOLDERS are as follows:

[1] Achievement at SPM or its equivalent³

-  A minimum of 5 credits at SPM level or its equivalent obtained in one and the same examination

AND

[2] Achievement at STPM or its equivalent⁴

-  A minimum of 2 principal passes at STPM level or its equivalent obtained in one and the same examination.
-  Duration of the STPM course or its equivalent shall be a minimum of 1 academic year.

AND

[3] A recognized law degree⁵

-  Studied for a minimum of 3 academic years and a minimum of 12 subjects.
-  The 12 law must include 6 core subjects, namely Law of Contract; Law of Torts; Constitutional Law; Criminal Law; Land Law; and Equity & Trusts, which each was studied for the duration of 1 academic year.
-  For University of London LL.B holders, the degree must be completed within 6 years from registration (first year) AND the candidate must have obtained at least a Second Class Lower law degree.

CLP Examination [PSAG]

The CLP Examination, also known as, Peperiksaan Sijil Amalan Guaman (PSAG) is conducted twice (2) every year:

- The Main Examination typically takes place in July/August; and
- The Referral/Supplementary Examination is commonly conducted in October/November.

To register for the CLP Exam, a candidate must:

[1] Firstly apply to LPQB to sit for the Exam.

- The application period usually opens in November/December & candidates are required to pay an Application Processing Fees of RM250.00 to LPQB.

[2] Candidates with successful applications, will then proceed to register for the Exam between the months of February – April (year of the Exam). To register, candidates will pay LPQB a total of RM 5,800.00:-

- RM4, 000.00 being the Registration Fee; and
- RM1, 800.00 as the Examination Fee.

These fees are stipulated by LPQB & may be subject to change from time to time.*

Starting from PSAG 2021, a registration for the CLP Examination is valid for a period of five (5) years only, within which each candidate is entitled to a maximum of four (4) sittings/attempts.

Should a candidate fail the Exam after his/her fourth attempt OR should the five (5) year-registration period expires, the candidate will no longer be allowed to re-apply/re-register for the CLP Exam.

CLP Examination [PSAG]

All CLP candidates must sit for five (5) compulsory papers in the CLP Examination, comprising of:

- Civil Procedure
- Criminal Procedure
- Evidence
- Professional Practice
- General Paper

There are no optional papers and all candidates must pass all five (5) papers in one sitting.

Candidates who fail one (1) of the five (5) papers in Main Examination will be given a Conditional Pass, and allowed to re-sit the one (1) paper in a total of three (3) trials within the period of four (4) years of his/her registration.

Candidates who fail in two (2) or more papers will be considered to have failed the Exam as a whole and will be required to retake all five papers within the four (4) years of the registration for the Exam.

On a yearly basis, the CLP Examination is conducted physically at the University Malaya's Examination Building. There is only one venue for this Exam nationwide. However due to Covid-19 pandemic, the LPQB will conduct the PSAG subject to strict compliance with standard operating procedures (SOPs).⁶
